

Pink snapper and Western Australian dhufish are demersal (bottom dwelling) fish. They are vulnerable to overfishing as they are slow-growing and generally don't travel far from home.